Ready to make a difference in climate policy? But not sure where to start? We have you covered. The Environmental and Energy Study Institute (EESI) invites you to join us for our start-of-the-new Congress briefing series, Climate Camp. We will go over the basics of the legislative process, highlighting key areas and opportunities for climate mitigation and adaptation policy.

Our first session in EESI's Congressional Climate Camp series will bring you up to speed on the budget and appropriations process already underway for fiscal year 2024. Panelists will draw on examples of funding for climate, energy, and environment programs to bring the process to life and show how it plays out in practice. Panelists will also describe how annual appropriations have been impacted by the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act and the Inflation Reduction Act.

Speakers for this forum are:

- Angela Jones, Analyst in Environmental Policy, Congressional Research Service
- Franz Wuerfmannsdobler, Senior Advisor, Bipartisan Policy Center
- Molly Reynolds, Senior Fellow, Governance Studies, Brookings

Congressional Climate Camp schedule:

- Jan. 26 Budget and Appropriations
- Feb. 9 Public Polling
- Feb. 23 Non-CO2 Greenhouse Gases
- March 9 Implementing the Inflation Reduction Act and Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act

This event is free and open to the public.
