Recap of COP26: Key Outcomes and What Comes Next Briefing Series on the U.N. Climate Change Conference in Glasgow

November 18, 2021

10:30 AM – 12:00 PM EST

Please RSVP to expedite check-in: www.eesi.org/1021cop26#rsvp

Live webcasts will be streamed at: www.eesi.org/livecast

The Environmental and Energy Study Institute (EESI) invites you to join us for a briefing to review what took place at the U.N. climate change conference in Glasgow—the 26th Conference of the Parties (COP26) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change—and why it matters for Congress.

With dozens of events and negotiating sessions happening at any one time during the two weeks of COP, it can be challenging to keep up with all the details. This briefing will review the key outcomes of COP26 and provide context and nuance to the main headlines coming out of the meeting. Panelists will then dive into takeaways from international, private sector, and local government perspectives.

- Dr. Simon Evans, Deputy Editor and Policy Editor, Carbon Brief
- Dr. Joanna Depledge, Research Fellow, Cambridge Centre for Environment, Energy and Natural Resource Governance, University of Cambridge
- Anne L. Kelly, Vice-President, Government Relations, Ceres
- Nicole Montclair-Donaghy – Kampeska Cinkila Win (Little Shell Woman), Executive Director, North Dakota Native Vote

This briefing is the final installment of a briefing series on what Congress needs to know about COP26. To view all the briefings, visit www.eesi.org/1021cop26. We are grateful for the partnership with the Henry M. Jackson Foundation that helped make this briefing series possible.

This briefing series is co-sponsored by the British Embassy Washington.

This event is free and open to the public.
